SAMSON AND DELILAH.

ENGLISH VERSION BY NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

ACT I.

Public place in the city of Gaza in Palestine. At L., the portal of Dagon. At the rising of the curtain a throng of Hebrews, men and women, are seen collected in the open space, in attitudes of grief and prayer. SAMSON is among them.

SCENE I.

CHORUS.

God ! Israel's God !
To our petition hearken !
Thy children save !
As they kneel in despair
Heed Thou their prayer,
While o'er them sorrows darken !
Oh, let Thy wrath
Give place to loving care !

THE WOMEN.

Since Thou from us
Hast turned away Thy favor
We are undone,
In vain Thy people fight. [Curtain rises.

CHORUS.

Lord, wilt Thou have
That we perish forever—
The nation that alone
Hath known
Thy light ? Ah ! all the day
Do I humbly adore Him :
Deaf to my cry
He gives me no reply,
Yet still I bow before Him
And implore Him
That He at last
To my aid may draw nigh !

THE HEBREW MEN.

By savage foes our cities have been harried ;
Gentiles Thine altar with shame
Have profaned ;
Our tribes afar
To dire slavery carried
All scattered are ;
Scarce our name
Hath remained !
Art thou no more
The God of our salvation,
Who saved our sires
From the chains that they wore ?
Lord ! hast Thou forgot
Those vows, sworn to our nation
In days of yore,
When Egypt hurt us sore ?

SAMSON, emerging from the throng at R.

Pause and stand
O my brothers,
And bless the holy name
Of the God of our fathers !
Your pardon is at hand,
And your chains shall be broken !
I have heard in my heart
Words of hope softly spoken :—
'Tis the voice of the Lord
That through His servant speaketh ;
He doth His grace afford :
Your lasting good He seeketh ;
Your throne shall be restored !
Brothers ! now break your fetters !
Our altar let us raise
To the God whom we praise !

CHORUS.

Alas ! vain words he utters,
Freedom can ne'er be ours !
Of arms our foes bereft us ;
How use our feeble powers ?
Only tears are left us !

SAMSON.

Is your God not on high ?
  Hath He not sworn to save you?
He is still your ally
  By the name that He gave you !
'Twas for you alone
  That He spake through His thunders !
His glory He hath shown
  To you by mighty wonders !
He led through the Red Sea
  By miraculous ways,
When our fathers did flee
  From a shameful oppression !

CHORUS.

Past are those glorious days,
  God hath venged our transgression ;
In His wrath He delays,
  Nor hears our intercession.

SAMSON.

Wretched souls ! hold your peace !
  Doubt not the God above you !
Fall down upon your knees !
  Pray to Him who doth love you !
Behold His mighty hand,
  The safeguard of our nation !
With dauntless valor stand
  In hope of our salvation !
God the Lord speeds the right ;
  God the Lord never faileth !
He fills our arms with might,
  And our prayer now prevaileth !

CHORUS.

Lo ! the Spirit of the Lord
  Upon his soul hath rested !
Come ! our courage is restored ;
  Let now His way be tested !
We will march at His side ;
  Deliverance shall attend us,
For the Lord is our guide,
  And His arm shall defend us !

SCENE II.

The same. ABIMELECH, satrap of Gaza, enters at L., followed by a throng of warriors and soldiery of the Philistines.

ABIMELECH.

Who dares to raise the voice of pride ?
  Do these slaves accuse their masters ?
Who oft in vain our strength have tried,
  Would they now incur new disasters ?
Conceal your despair
  And your tears !
Our patience will hold out no longer ;
You have found that we are the stronger ;
In vain your prayer,
  We mock your fears ;
  Your God, whom ye implore with anguish,
Remaineth deaf to your call ;
  He lets you still in bondage languish,
On you His heavy judgments fall !

If He from us desires to save you,
  Now let Him show His power divine,
And shatter the chains your conquerors have you !
  Let the sun of freedom shine !

Do ye hope in insolent daring
  Our God unto yours will yield,
Jehovah with Dagon comparing,
  Who for us winneth the field ?
Nay, your timid God fears and trembles
  When Dagon before Him is seen ;
He the plaintive dove resembles ;
  Dagon the vulture bold and keen.

SAMSON (inspired).

O God, it is Thou he blasphemeth !
  Let Thy wrath on his head descend,
Lord of hosts !
  His power hath an end.
On high like lightning gleameth
  The sword sparkling with fire ;
From the sky swiftly streameth
  The host burning with ire ;—
Yea ! all the heavenly legions
  In their mighty array
Sweep over boundless regions,
  And strike the foe with dismay.
At last cometh the hour
  When God's fierce fire shall fall :
Its terrible power
  And His thunder appall.
Lord, before Thy displeasure
  Helpless the earth shall quake ;
Thy wrath will know no measure
  When vengeance Thou shalt take !

ABIMELECH.

Give o'er! rashly blind! Cease thy railing,
Wake not Dagon's wrath, death-entailing!

SAMSON.

Israel! break your chain!
Arise! display your might!
Their idle threats disdain!
See, the day follows night!
Jehovah, God of light,
Hear our prayer as of yore,
And for Thy people fight!
Let the right
Win once more!

CHORUS.

Israel! break your chain!
Arise! display your might!
Their idle threats disdain!
See, the day follows night!
Jehovah, God of light,
Hear our prayer as of yore,
And for Thy people fight!
Let the right
Win once more!

SAMSON.

Lord, before Thy displeasure
Helpless the earth shall quake;
Thy wrath will know no measure
When vengeance Thou shalt take!
Thou the tempest unchainest;
The storms Thy word obey;
The vast sea Thou restrainest;
Be our shield, Lord, to-day!

CHORUS.

Israel! break your chain!
Arise! display your might!
Their idle threats disdain!
See, the day follows night!
Jehovah, God of light,
Hear our prayer as of yore,
And for Thy people fight!
Let the right
Win once more!
Arise! display your might!

(ABIMELECH springs at SAMSON, sword in hand, to strike him. SAMSON wrenches the sword away and strikes him. ABIMELECH falls, crying, "Help." The PHILISTINES accompanying the satrap would gladly aid him, but SAMSON, brandishing the sword, keeps them at a distance. He occupies the R. of stage, the greatest confusion reigns. SAMSON and the HEBREWS exeunt R. The gates of Dagon's temple open; the HIGH PRIEST, followed by a throng of attendants and guards, descends the steps of the portico; he pauses before ABIMELECH'S dead body. The PHILISTINES respectfully draw back before him.)

SCENE III.

The same, the HIGH PRIEST, ATTENDANTS, GUARDS.

HIGH PRIEST.

What see I?
Abimelech by slaves struck down and dying!
Oh, let them not escape!
To arms! Pursue the flying!
Wreak revenge on your foes!
For the prince they have slain!
Strike down beneath your blows
These slaves, who flee in vain!

FIRST PHILISTINE.

All my blood, it was fated,
Turned to ice in my veins;
Methought my limbs were weighted
With heavy load of chains!

SECOND PHILISTINE.

My arms are unavailing,
My strength is like the flax;
My knees beneath me failing—
And my heart melts like wax

HIGH PRIEST.

Cowards! with hearts easily daunted,
Ye are filled with foolish alarm!
Have ye lost all your boldness vaunted,
Do ye fear their God's puny arm?

SCENE IV.

The same, a PHILISTINE MESSENGER.

PHILISTINE MESSENGER.

The band by Samson guided
To revolt, with furious wrath
Across our land by fear divided
March, leaving woe in their path.

FIRST AND SECOND PHILISTINE.

O fly from the threatening danger!
Come! why should we perish in vain?
We'll leave the town unto the stranger,
And the sheltering mountains gain.

HIGH PRIEST.

Curse you and your nation forever,
Children of Israel!
I fain your tribe from earth would sever,
And leave no trace to tell!
Curse him, too, their guide! How I hate him!
Him will I stamp 'neath my feet!
A cruel doom must now await him;
He shall die when we meet!
Curse her, too, the mother who bore him,
And all her hateful race!
May she who faithful love once swore him
Prove heartless, false, and base.
Cursed be the God of his nation,
That God his only trust;
His temple shake from its foundation,
His altar fall to dust!

PHILISTINES.

In spite of brave professions,
To yonder mountains fly;
Leave our homes, our possessions,
Our god, or else we die!

(Exeunt L., bearing ABIMELECH'S dead body. Just as the PHILISTINES leave the stage, followed by the HIGH PRIEST, the HEBREWS, old men and children, enter R. It is broad daylight.)

SCENE V.

The HEBREW WOMEN and OLD MEN; then SAMSON and the victorious HEBREWS.

HEBREW OLD MEN.

Praise ye Jehovah! Tell all the wondrous story!
Psalms of praise loudly swell!
God is the Lord! In His power and His glory
He hath saved Israel!
Through Him weak arms have triumphed o'er the masters,
Whose might oppressed them sore;
Upon their heads He hath poured great disasters,
They will mock Him no more!

(The HEBREWS, led by SAMSON, enter R.)

AN OLD HEBREW.

His hand in anger stern chastised us,
For we His laws had disobeyed;
But when our punishment advised us,
And we our humble prayer had made,
He bade us cease our lamentations—
"Rise in arms, to combat!" He cried,
"Your God shall provide
Your salvation;
In battle I am by your side!"

HEBREW OLD MEN.

When we were slaves, He came our chains to sever,
We were ever His care;
His mighty arm was able to deliver,
He hath turned our despair!
Praise ye Jehovah! Tell all the wondrous story!
Psalms of praise loudly swell!
God is the Lord! In His power and His glory
He hath saved Israel!

SCENE VI.

SAMSON, DELILAH, the PHILISTINES, the HEBREW OLD MAN. The gates of the temple

open. DELILAH enters, followed by PHILISTINE WOMEN holding garlands of flowers in their hands.

THE PHILISTINE WOMEN.

Now spring's generous hand
Brings flowers to the land ;
  Be they worn as crowns
By thy conquering band !
  With light, gladsome voices,
'Mid glowing roses,
  While all rejoices,
Sing, sisters, sing—
Your tribute bring !
Come, deathless delight,
Youth's springtime bright,
  The beauty that charms
The heart at the sight,
  The love that entrances
And new love wakens
  With timid glances !
My sisters, love
Like the birds above !

DELILAH (addressing SAMSON).

I come with a song for the splendor
  Of my love who won in the fray !
  I belong unto him for aye ;
Heart as well as hand I surrender !
Come, my dearest one, follow me
  To Soreck, the fairest of valleys,
  Where, murmuring, the cool streamlet dallies !
Delilah there will comfort thee.

SAMSON.

O God ! who beholdest my trial,
  Thy strength to Thy servant impart,
  Close fast mine eyes, make firm my heart,
Support me in stern self-denial !

DELILAH.

My comely brow for thee I bind
  With clusters of cool, curling cresses
And Sharon's roses sweet are twined
  Amid my long raven tresses.

THE OLD HEBREW.

Oh, turn away, my son, and go not there !
  Avoid this stranger's seductive devices ;
  Heed not her voice, though softly she entices ;
Of the serpent's deadly fang beware !

SAMSON.

Hide from my sight her beauty rare,
  Whose magic spell with right alarms me !
  Oh, quench those eyes whose brightness charms me,
And fills my heart with love's despair !

DELILAH.

Sweet is the lily's perfumed breath ;
  Sweeter far are my warm caresses ;
  There awaits thee love that blesses,
And all that bliss awakeneth !
  Open thine arms, my brave defender !
Let me fly to thy sheltering breast ;
There on thy heart I will sweetly rest,
  Filling thy soul with rapture tender.
    Come, oh come !

SAMSON.

Oh, that flame that my heart oppresses,
  Burning anew in this hour,
  Before my God, before my God give o'er thy power !
Lord, pity him who his weakness confesses !

THE OLD HEBREW.

Accursed art thou, if 'neath her charm thou fallest,
  If to her voice, if to her honeyed voice thou givest heed ;
Ah ! then thy tears are vain, in vain thou callest
  On Heaven to save thee from the fruits of thy deed !

(The young girls accompanying DELILAH dance, waving the garlands of flowers which they hold in their hands, and seem to be trying to seduce the Hebrew warriors who follow SAMSON. The latter, deeply agitated, tries vainly to avoid DELILAH'S glances. His eyes, in spite of all his efforts, follow all the enchantress's movements as she takes part in the voluptuous postures and gestures of the Philistine maidens.)

Dance of the Priestesses of Dagon.

DELILAH.

The spring with her dower
Of bird and of flower
  Brings hope in her train ;
Her scent-laden pinions
From Love's wide dominions
  Drives sorrow and pain.
Our hearts thrill with gladness,
For spring's mystic madness
  Thrills through all the earth.
To fields doth she render
Their grace and their splendor—
  Joy and gentle mirth.

In vain I adorn me
  With blossoms and charms !
My false love doth scorn me,
  And flees from my arms !
But hope still caresses
  My desolate heart—
Past delight yet blesses !
  Love will not depart !

(Addressing SAMSON, with her face bent upon him.)

When night comes, star-laden,
Like a sad, lonely maiden,
I'll sit by the stream,
And mourning I'll dream.
My heart I'll surrender
  If he come to-day,
And still be as tender
As when Love's first splendor
  Made me rich and gay :—
  So I'll wait him alway.

HEBREW OLD MAN.

The powers of hell have created this woman
  Fair to the eye, to disturb thy repose ;
Turn from her glance, fraught with fire not human ;
  Her love is a poison that brings countless woes !

DELILAH.

My heart I'll surrender
  If he come to-day,
And still be as tender
As when Love's first splendor
  Made me rich and gay :—
  So I'll wait him alway !

(DELILAH, still singing, again goes to the steps of the portico and casts her enticing glances at SAMSON, who seems wrought upon by their spell. He hesitates, struggles, and betrays the trouble of his soul.)

END OF ACT I.

ACT II.

The stage represents the valley of Soreck in Palestine. At L., DELILAH'S dwelling, which has a graceful portico, and is surrounded with Asiatic plants and luxuriant tropical creepers. At the rising of the curtain night is coming on, and becomes complete during the course of the action.

SCENE I.

DELILAH (alone).

She is more richly apparelled than in the first act. At the rising of the curtain she is discovered seated on a rock near the portico of her house, and seems to be in a dreamy mood.

This eve Samson makes his obeisance,
  This eve at my feet he will lie !
Now the hour of my vengeance hastens—
  Our Gods I shall soon satisfy !

O Love, of thy might let me borrow !
  Pour thy poison through Samson's heart !
Let him be bound before the morrow—
  A captive to my matchless art !

In his soul he no longer would cherish
  The passion he wishes were dead ;
Can a flame like that ever perish,
  Evermore by remembrance fed ?

He rests my slave ; his feats belie him ;
My brothers fear with vain alarms ;
I only of all—I defy him,
I hold him fast within my arms !

O Love, of thy might let me borrow !
Pour thy poison through Samson's heart !
Let him be bound before the morrow—
A captive to my matchless art !

When Love contends strength ever faileth ;
E'en he, the strongest of the strong,
Through whom in war his tribe prevaileth,
Against me shall not battle long !

SCENE II.

DELILAH ; the HIGH PRIEST of Dagon.

HIGH PRIEST.

I have crossed o'er the cheerless
Mountain-peaks to thy side ;
'Mid dangers I was fearless ;
Dagon served as my guide !

DELILAH.

I greet you, worthy master ;
A welcome face you show,
Honored e'er as priest and pastor ! . . .

HIGH PRIEST.

Our disaster
You know !
Desperate slaves without pity
Rose against their lords,
They sacked the helpless city—
None resisted their hordes.

Our soldiers fled before them
At the sound of Samson's name ;
The pangs of terror tore them,
Like sheep they became !
A menace to our nation,
Samson had from on high
A strength and preparation
That none with him could vie.

A vow hath bound him ever,
He from birth was elect
To consecrate endeavor,
Israel's glory to effect.

DELILAH.

I know his courage dares you,
Even unto your face ;
He endless hatred bears you,
As the first of your race.

HIGH PRIEST.

Within thine arms one day
His strength vanished away ;
But since then
He endeavors to forget thee again.
'Tis said, in shameful fashion
His Delilah he scouts :
He makes sport of his passion,
And all its joy he doubts.

DELILAH.

Although his brothers warn him.
And he hears what they say
They all coldly scorn him
Because he loves astray ;
Yet still, in spite of reason,
He struggles all in vain ;
I fear from him no treason,
For his heart I retain !
'Tis in vain
He defies me,
Though so mighty in arms ;
Not a wish he denies me ;
He melts before my charms.

HIGH PRIEST.

Then let thy zeal awaken,
Use thy weird magic powers,
That unarmed, overtaken,
He this night may be ours !
Sell me this redoubtable thrall,
Nor shall thy profit be small ;
Naught thou wishest could be a burden ;
Priceless shall be thy well-earned guerdon !

DELILAH.

Do I care for thy promised gold ?
Delilah's vengeance were not sold

For all a king's uncounted treasure!
Thy knowledge, though boundless in measure,
Hath played thee false in reading me!
O'er you he gained the victory,
But I am still too powerful for him;
More bitter than thou, I abhor him!

HIGH PRIEST.

Thy design and thy deadly hate I should have guessed;
To hear thy wily words my heart with pleasure trembles,
Yet art thou sure of him? Will thy power stand the test?
Hast thou measured his cunning? Maybe he, too, dissembles.

DELILAH.

Thrice, indeed, have I failed to accomplish my plan—
I have sought for the key to the strength of the man;
I have kindled his love with the hope that by yielding
I might spoil the mysterious might he is wielding!
Thrice hath he foiled my plan, disappointed my hope;
His secret still he holds—with him no one can cope!
In vain I emulate all the fire he expresses;
Though I thought that I might gain that knowledge by caresses,
This haughty Hebrew slave oft hath hurried away
From my sweetest embraces to engage in the fray.
But to-day
Have no fear, my might will overawe him;
Pale grew his face once stern,
He shook when last I saw him.
So know
That our foe
His friends once more will spurn;
He will yearn
For my love,
We shall see him return.

The victory shall be mine, I am ready to meet him;
One last weapon is left me—my tears shall defeat him!

HIGH PRIEST.

Oh, may Dagon, our God, by thy side deign to stand!
'Tis for him thou art fighting; thou winnest by his hand.

DELILAH.

That vengeance now at last may find him,
Delilah's chains must firmly bind him!
May he by his love yield his power,
And here at my feet meekly cower.

HIGH PRIEST.

That vengeance now at last may find him,
Delilah's chains must firmly bind him!
May he by his love yield his power,
And here at thy feet meekly cower.

DELILAH.

That vengeance now at last may find him, etc.

HIGH PRIEST.

In thee alone my hope remaineth,
Thy hand the honored victory gaineth. That vengeance, etc.
We two shall strike the blow—
Death to our mighty foe!

DELILAH.

My hand the honored victory gaineth,
That vengeance, etc.
We two shall strike the blow—
Death to our mighty foe!

HIGH PRIEST.

To-night didst thou not tell me
Samson is awaited?

DELILAH.

He will come!

HIGH PRIEST.

Then I go, lest he find me belated ;
But soon by secret paths I bring the avenging band.
Now the fate of thy land
Is lodged within thy hand.
Unveil his hidden heart,
And rob him of his treasure ;
Make him tell where resides
That force which none may measure.
[Exit.

DELILAH (approaches the portico, L., and stands leaning in a dreamy attitude against one of the pillars).

Oh, can it be, I have lost the sway
I held o'er my lover ?
The night is dark, without a ray ;
If he seek me now, how discover ?
Alas !
The moments pass !

SCENE III.

DELILAH ; SAMSON. (Distant flashes of lightning.)

SAMSON.

Once again to this place
My erring feet draw nigh !
I ought to shun her face,
No strength have I !
Though my passion I curse,
Yet its torments still slay me.
Away ! away from her,
Ere she through stealth betray me !

DELILAH (advancing toward SAMSON).

'Tis thou ! 'tis thou whom I adore !
In thine absence I languish ;
In seeing thee once more
Forgot are hours of anguish !
Thy face is doubly welcome.

SAMSON.

Ah ! cease that wild discourse ;
At thy words all my soul
Is darkened with remorse !

DELILAH.

Ah ! Samson, my best-beloved friend
In thy heart dost thou despise me ?
Is't thus thy love hath an end,
Which once above all jewels did prize me ?

SAMSON.

Thou hast been priceless unto my heart,
And never canst thou be discarded !
Dearer than life art thou regarded !
In my love none hath greater part !

DELILAH.

By my side dost thou fear some disaster ?
Dost thou doubt that I love thee still ?
Do I not fulfil all thy will ?
Art not thou my dear lord and master ?

SAMSON.

Alas ! Jehovah heard my vow—
To obey Him is my bounden duty !
Farewell, I must leave thee now,
Ne'er again behold thy matchless beauty.
No more to indulge joyful love—give way !
Israel's hopes revive by this token ;
For the Lord hath decreed the day
Which shall see our chains surely broken !
He hath spoken
To me His word :
" Among thy brethren art thou elected
To lead them back to God their Lord,
Ending all the woes whereby they are afflicted !

DELILAH.

What cares my heart all forlorn
For Israel's fate or her glory,
When joy, from me brutally torn,
Sums up for me the wretched story ?
When I in thy promise believed
My peace of mind forever was ended :
Each false caress that I received
Was in my veins a poison bleuded.

SAMSON.

Forbear to rack my soul with woe !
I must yield to a law above thee ;

Tenfold my grief when thy tears flow—
Delilah ! Delilah ! I love thee !

(Distant flashes of lightning.)

DELILAH.

A God far more mighty than thine,
My friend, through me his will proclaimeth ;
'Tis the God of Love, the divine,
Whose law thy God's small sceptre shameth !
Recall blissful hours at my side,
If thou from thy mistress must sever !
Thou'st broke the faith that should abide !
I alone remain constant ever !

SAMSON.

Thou unfeeling ! To doubt of my heart !
Ever of my love all things tell me !
Oh, let me perish by God's dart,
May God's lightning swift overwhelm me !
I struggle with my fate no more,
I know on earth no power above thee !

(Flashes approach nearer.)

Yea, though hell hold my doom in store,
Delilah ! Delilah ! I love thee !

DELILAH.

My heart at thy dear voice
Opens wide like a flower,
Which the morn's kisses waken ;
But that I may rejoice,
That my tears no more shower,
Tell thy love still unshaken !

Oh, say thou wilt not now
Leave Delilah again !
Repeat with accents tender
Every passionate vow,
Oh, thou dearest of men !
Oh, to the charms of love surrender !
Rise with me to its heights of splendor !

SAMSON.

Delilah ! Delilah ! I love thee !

DELILAH.

As fields of growing corn
In the morn bend and sway,
When the light zephyr rises,
E'en so my heart forlorn
Is thrilled by passion's play
At thy voice's sweet surprises !

Less rapid is the dart
In its death-dealing flight
Than I spring to my delight,
To my place on thy heart !
Oh, to the charms of love surrender !
Rise with me to its heights of splendor !

SAMSON.

I'll dry thy tears
By charm of sweet caresses,
And chase thy fears
And the grief that oppresses !

DELILAH, SAMSON, in ensemble. Violent crash of thunder.

DELILAH.

But no ! . . . the dream is o'er !
Delilah trusts no more !
Words are idle pretences !
Thou hast mocked me before,
Too flagrant thy offences !

SAMSON.

When I dare to follow thee now ?
Forgetting my God and my vow—
The God who hath sealed my existence
With strength divine that knew no resistance ?

DELILAH.

Ah ! well, thou shalt now read my heart !
Know why thy God I have envied, hated—
Thy God by whose fiat thou art,
To whom thou art consecrated !
Oh, tell me this vow thou hast sworn—
How thy mighty power is redoubled !
Remove the doubts whereby I am torn,
Let not my heart be longer troubled !

(Thunder and lightning in the distance.)

SAMSON.

Delilah ! what dost thou desire ?
Ah ! let not thy distrust rouse mine ire !

DELILAH.

If still I have power left to move thee,
  Whereby in the past I was blessed,
  This hour I would put it to test ;
Firm trust in me would now behoove thee !

(Lightning and thunder nearer and nearer.)

SAMSON.

Alas ! the chain which I must wear
  Maketh not nor marreth thy joyance !
For my secret why dost thou care ?

DELILAH.

Tell me thy vow ! Assuage the pain I bear !

SAMSON.

Thy power is vain ; vain thine annoyance !

DELILAH.

Yea, my power is vain,
  Because thy love is bounded !
My desire to disdain,
  To despise my spirit, wounded
By thy secret unknown ;
  And to add without reason,
In cold, insulting tone
  Charges of latent treason !

SAMSON.

With a heart in despair
  Too immense to be spoken,
I raise to God my prayer
  In a voice sad and broken !

DELILAH.

For him have I displayed
  All my beauty's decoration ;
And how am I repaid ?
  In tears and lamentation !

SAMSON.

All-powerful God, I call on thee for aid !

DELILAH.

To see thy stern, cold face
  My sad forebodings waken ;
Samson, flee from this place
  Ere I die, thy love forsaken.

SAMSON.

Say no more !

DELILAH.

Tell thy vow !

SAMSON.

Ask me not !

DELILAH.

Tell me now
I implore—
The vow which thou
Hast taken.

SAMSON.

The storm is rising fast
  To rend the hill asunder,
And the Lord's wrath will blast
  The traitor with His thunder !

DELILAH.

I fear not by thy side ! Come !

SAMSON.

No !

DELILAH.

Come !

SAMSON.

Say no more!

DELILAH.

At His wrath cast defiance!

SAMSON.

Vain is my self-reliance.
'Tis the voice of my God!

DELILAH.

Coward! you loveless heart;
I despise you! Away!

(DELILAH runs toward her dwelling; the storm breaks in all its fury; SAMSON, raising his arms to heaven, seems to call upon God. Then he springs in pursuit of DELILAH, hesitates, and finally enters the house. Philistine soldiers enter R. and softly approach DELILAH'S dwelling. A violent crash of thunder.

DELILAH (appearing at her window).

Your aid, Philistines, your aid!

SAMSON.

I am betrayed!

The soldiers rush into the house. Curtain.

END OF ACT II.

ACT III.

FIRST TABLEAU.—The prison at Gaza.

SCENE I.

SAMSON; the HEBREWS.

SAMSON, in chains, blinded, with his locks shorn, is discovered turning a hand-mill. Behind the scenes a chorus of captive Hebrews.

SAMSON.

Look down on me, O Lord! Have mercy on me!
Behold my woe! Behold sin hath undone me!
My erring feet have wandered from Thy path,
And so I feel the burden of Thy wrath!

To Thee, O God, this poor wrecked life I offer!
I am no more than a scorn to the scoffer!
My sightless eyes testify of my fall;
Upon my head
Hath been shed
Bitter gall!

CHORUS.

Samson, why thy vow to God hast thou broken?
What doth it betoken?

SAMSON.

Alas! Israel, loaded with chains,
From God's holy face sternly banished
Every hope of return hath vanished,
And only dull despair remains!
May we regain all the light of Thy favor!
Wilt Thou once more Thy protection accord?
Forget Thy wrath at our reproach, O Lord—
Thou whose compassionate love watches ever!

CHORUS.

God meant thou shouldst take the command
To lead us to our fatherland;
Samson! why thy vow hast thou broken?
What doth it betoken?

SAMSON.

Brothers, your complaint voiced in song
Reaches me as in gloom I languish,
And my spirit is torn with anguish
To think of all this shame and wrong!

God ! take my life in expiation !
Let me alone Thine anger bear ;
Punishing me, Thine Israel spare !
Restore Thy mercy to our nation !

CHORUS.

He for a woman sold his power !
He to Delilah hath betrayed us !
Thou who wert to us like a tower—
Why hast thou slaves and hopeless made us ?

SAMSON.

Contrite, broken-hearted I lie,
But I bless Thy hand in my sorrow !
Comfort, Lord, let Thy people borrow,
Let them escape ! Let them not die !

SECOND TABLEAU.—Interior of the temple of Dagon. Statue of the god. Sacrificial table. In the midst of the fane two marble columns apparently supporting the edifice.

SCENE II.

The HIGH PRIEST, DELILAH, the PHILISTINES.

The HIGH PRIEST of Dagon is surrounded by Philistine princes. DELILAH, followed by Philistine maidens crowned with flowers, with wine-cups in their hands. A throng of people fill the temple. Day is breaking.

CHORUS OF PHILISTINES.

Dawn now on the hill-tops heralds the day !
Stars and torches in its light fades away !
Let us revel still, and despite its warning
Love till the morning !
It is love alone makes us bright and gay !

The breeze of the morn puts the shades to flight,
They hasten away like a mist-veil light !
The horizon glows with a rosy splendor ;
The sun shines bright
On each swelling height,
And the tree-tops tender !

Bacchanal.

SCENE III.

THE HIGH PRIEST.

All hail the judge of Israel,
Who by his presence here,
Makes our festival splendid !
Let him be by thy fair hands,
Delilah, attended,
Fill high for thy love the hydromel !
Now let him drain the beaker with songs for thy praises,
And vaunt thy power in swelling phrases !

CHORUS.

Samson, in thy pleasure we share !
We praise Delilah, thy fair mistress !
Empty the bowl and drown thy care !
Good wine maketh less deepest distress !

SAMSON (aside).

Deadly sadness fills my soul !
Lord, before Thee, humbly I bow me !
Oh, by Thy will divine allow me,
To gain at last life's destined goal !

DELILAH (approaching SAMSON with a wine cup in her hand).

By my hand, love, be thou led !
Let me show thee where thy feet may tread !
Down the long and shaded alley
Leading to the enchanted valley,
Where often we used to meet,
Enjoying hours heavenly sweet !
Thou hadst to climb lofty mountains
To make thy way to thy bride,
Where by the murmuring fountains,
Thou wert in bliss at my side !
Tell me thy heart still blesses
All the warmth of my caresses !
Thy love served well for my end.
That I my vengeance might fashion
Thy vital secret I gained,
Working on thy blinded passion !
By my love thy soul was lured !
'Twas I who hath wrought our salvation !
'Twas Delilah's hand assured
Her god, her hate, and her nation.

SAMSON (aside).

Deaf to thy voice, Lord, I remained,
And in my guilty passion's blindness,
Alas! the purest love profaned
In lavishing on her my kindness.

HIGH PRIEST.

Come now, we pray, sing, Samson, sing!
Rehearse in verse thy sweet discourses,
Which thou to her wert wont to bring
From thy eager love's inmost sources.
Or, let Jehovah show His power,
Light to thy sightless eyes restoring!
I promise thee that self-same hour
We all will thy God name, adoring.
Ah! He is deaf unto thy prayer,
This God thou art vainly imploring!
His impotent wrath I may dare
And scorn His thunder's idly roaring.

SAMSON.

Hearest thou, O God, from Thy throne
How this impudent knave denies Thee,
And how his hateful troop despise Thee,
With pride and with insolence flown?

Once again all Thy glory show them!
Once more let Thy marvels shine,
Thy light and Thy might be mine,
That I again may overthrow them!

CHORUS.

Ha! ha! ha! ha!
We laugh at thy fury's spite!
Us thou canst not affright.
With idle rage thou ragest;
Thy day is like the night!
Thine eyes lack their sight,
A weakling's war thou wagest!
Ha! ha! ha! ha!

HIGH PRIEST.

Come, fair Delilah, give thanks to our God,
Jehovah trembles at his awful rod.
Consult we now
What the godhead advises,
E'en while we bow
The altar incense rises.

(DELILAH and the HIGH PRIEST turn to the sacrificial table, on which are found the sacred cups. A fire is burning on the altar, which is decorated with flowers. DELILAH and the HIGH PRIEST, taking the cups, pour a libation on the fire, which flames, then vanishes, to reappear at the third strophe of the invocation. SAMSON has remained in the midst of the stage with the boy who led him. He seems overwhelmed with grief, and his lips are moving in evident prayer.

DELILAH.

Dagon be ever praised!
He my weak hand hath aided,
And my faint heart he raised
When our last hope had faded.

HIGH PRIEST.

Dagon be ever praised!
He thy weak hand hath aided,
And thy faint heart he raised
When our last hope had faded.

BOTH.

Oh, thou ruler over all the world,
Thou who all stars greatest,
Be all thy foes to ruin hurled!
Over all gods thou art greatest!

CHORUS.

Thy blessing scatter
With mighty signs!
Let flocks wax fatter,
More rich our vines!
Let every village with wealth o'erflow,
And keep from pillage
Our hated foe!

DELILAH AND HIGH PRIEST.

Accept, O lord sublime,
Our victim's grand oblation,
For e'en our greatest crime
Take them in expiation.

CHORUS.

Dagon we praise!

DELILAH AND HIGH PRIEST.

Reveal to thy priest's wondering eyes,
  Who alone can behold thy glory,
  All the future's dark, hidden story
Which behind Fate's veil written lies!
God hear our prayer
  Before thy fane!
Make us thy care!
  Thy justice reign!
Success attend us
  Whene'er we fight!
Protection lend us
  By day and night!

DELILAH, HIGH PRIEST, AND CHORUS.

Dagon shows his power!
See the new flame tower!
Burning bright
  Amid smouldering ashes,
Our Lord of light,
  Descending, o'er us flashes!
Lo! the god we worship now appeareth.
And all his people feareth at his nod!

HIGH PRIEST (to SAMSON).

That Fate may not in favor falter,
  Now Samson, come, thine offering pour
Unto Dagon there on his altar,
  And on thy knees his grace implore!

(To the boy.)

Guide thou his steps! Let thou thy care enfold him
That all the people from afar behold him!

SAMSON.

O Lord, now is Thy time,
  Be Thou once more my stay;
Toward the marble columns,
  My boy, guide thou my way.

(The boy leads SAMSON between the two pillars.)

CHORUS.

Dagon shows his power, etc., as above.
God hear our prayer, etc., as above.
Thou hast vanquished the insolent
Children of Israel,
Strengthened our arm,
  Our heart renewed,
  And by thy wonders
Kept us from harm,
  Brought this people to servitude,
Who despised thy wrath
  And thy thunders!
God hear our prayer, etc., as above.
Glory to Dagon! Glory!

SAMSON (standing between the two pillars and endeavoring to overturn them).

Hear Thy servant's cry, God, my Lord,
  Though he is sore distressed with blindness!
My former force once more restored,
  One instant renew Thy gracious kindness!

Let Thine anger avenge my race;
Let them perish all in this place.

(The temple falls amid shrieks and cries.)

ALL.

Ah!

END OF THE OPERA.

SAMSON AND DELILAH.

Opera in three Acts.

Act I.

A public square in the city of Gaza, in Palestine; at the left the portico of the temple of Dagon. As the curtain rises, a throng of Hebrews, men and women, are discovered in attitudes of grief, dejection and prayer.

Samson is among them.

I Abimelech, sword in hand, attacks Samson: Samson wrests the sword from him, and runs him through. ABIMELECH, falling, cries: help! help! The Philistines in his suite run to his aid; Samson, brandishing his sword, keeps them off. They fill the stage at the right. The greatest confusion reigns among them. Samson and the Israelites exeunt at the right.

The gates of Dagon's temple open; the High Priest, followed by a throng of attendants and guards descends the steps of the portico; he pauses before Abimelech's dead body. The Philistines respectfully draw back before him.

The young girls, accompanying Delilah, dance, waving garlands of flowers, which they hold in their hands and seem to entice the Hebrew warriors who are with Samson. Samson anxiously tries, but in vain, to avoid Delilah's glances. His eyes, in spite of him, follow all the enchantress's movements, as she takes part in the voluptuous poses and gestures of the young Philistine maidens.

Delilah, still singing, again goes to the steps of the portico, and casts her enticing glances at Samson, who seems wrought upon by their spell. He hesitates, struggles, and betrays the trouble of his soul.

Act II.

The stage represents the valley of Soreck, in Palestine. At L., Delilah's dwelling, which has a graceful portico, and is surrounded with Asiatic plants and luxuriant tropical creepers. — At the rising of the curtain, night is coming on, and becomes complete during the course of the action.

Delilah and the High Priest direct their steps toward the sacrificial table on which are placed the sacred bowls. A fire is burning on the flower-trimmed altar. Delilah and the High Priest take the bowls, and pour a libation on the sacred fire which flames up, then disappears, to reappear at the third couplet of the invocation.
